Caroline is a Senior Associate at Tottle Partners, having commenced with the firm in 2010. She has a Bachelor of Arts (French) / Bachelor of Laws (Honours) degree from the University of Western Australia, graduating in 2008. Caroline commenced her legal career at Allens, and was admitted to practice in WA in 2009.

Caroline works across a wide range of commercial matters, including both front-end and back-end work. Caroline's experience includes:

- Building and construction matters, such as:
  - preparation and review of tenders;
  - review, preparation and negotiation of contracts on behalf of both principal and contractor;
  - advice on managing the contracting relationship;
  - dispute resolution, both in court and through negotiation, mediation and arbitration; and
  - building complaints matters, both residential and commercial.
- Oil and gas matters, particularly review, preparation and negotiation of offshore contracts.
- Mining and resources matters, including:
  - review, preparation and negotiation of contracts on behalf of both principal and contractor;
  - joint venture agreements and disputes between joint venture partners; and
  - dispute resolution, including in relation to complex mining projects.
- General commercial matters, including:
  - general advice to corporations and individuals across a wide range of practice areas;
  - debt recovery and insolvency matters, both personal and corporate, and acting for creditors, debtors and insolvency practitioners;
  - employment-related matters, acting for both employers and employees;
  - corporate governance matters, acting for both board members and shareholders;
  - both simple and complex litigation in the Magistrates, District and Supreme Courts of WA, and the Federal Court; and
  - alternative dispute resolution, including mediation and arbitration.

Her clients comprise individuals, Australian private and listed companies including a wide range of companies involved in the building and construction industry, and international enterprises.

Caroline is a member of the Law Society of Western Australia.
