Jessie is a Senior Associate at Tottle Partners. She joined the firm in 2010, after graduating with a Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Western Australia in 2009.

Since being admitted to practice in November 2010 Jessie has specialised in a wide range of commercial matters. Jessie's practice includes:

- Advising and acting for individual and corporate clients on general insolvency matters, including asset restructuring and protection.
- Advising insolvency practitioners in disputes connected with voluntary administrations, liquidations and other forms of external administrations.
- Acting in general debt recovery matters.
- Acting in complex commercial litigation in the Magistrates, District and Supreme Courts in Western Australia and the Federal Court of Australia, including disputes between partners in partnership and between directors or shareholders of companies, claims relating to misuse of confidential information, breaches of statutory and common law duties owed by directors and general breach of contract claims.
- Reviewing, preparing and negotiating sale of business and share sale agreements, non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements, partnership and shareholders' agreements and other commercial agreements for a wide range of clients.
- Advising clients on compliance with ASIC regulations and guidelines, particularly in relation to the advertising of financial services.
- Assisting clients in applications for grants of probate and letters of administration.

Jessie also specialises in health law and the defence of medical negligence claims. She represents medical practitioners in:

- Medical negligence claims in the District Court of Western Australia.
- Disciplinary proceedings, including against the Medical Board of Australia in the State Administrative Tribunal.
- Coronial inquests.

Jessie is a member of the Law Society of Western Australia.
