

andrew gliddon

partner

P: +61 8 9217 6700
E: agliddon@tottle.com
W: www.tottle.com

Andrew is a Partner of Tottle Partners, specialising in personal injury and professional indemnity litigation.

He graduated from UWA with Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Commerce degrees and was admitted to practice in the Western Australia in 2002. He joined Tottle Partners in 2010 before becoming a partner of the firm in 2016.

Andrew practices in the defence and management of public liability, employer's liability, professional indemnity and compulsory third party motor vehicle claims. He has a wide range of experience including:

- advice on liability, quantum and recovery issues on minor to catastrophic claims
- identifying determinative issues and bringing matters to an expeditious resolution
- understanding of the unique heads of damage that exist and the complexities involved in both the management and resolution of claims
- fatal accident dependency claims

Andrew acts for both public and private defendant insurers.

He has acted for the following:

- the Insurance Commission of WA (Compulsory Third Party Division) in relation to motor vehicle personal injury claims ranging from minor to catastrophic claims
- TAC Victoria in relation to a range of motor vehicle personal injury claims
- Australian and overseas based private insurers in relation to public liability and employer's liability claims
- Law Mutual WA in relation to professional indemnity claims involving alleged negligent action by solicitors in their management of personal injury, workers' compensation, medical negligence and public liability matters
- MDA National in relation to medical negligence claims

Successful outcomes which Andrew has recently achieved for his clients include:

- achieving settlement in one of the largest claims involving the Insurance Commission of Western Australia, via a Court approved periodical payment structured settlement.

defending through to the High Court a multi million dollar catastrophic injury claim on the issue of liability.

resolving on favourable terms for a private insurer client a multi party injury claim involving a construction worksite injury.

defending an issue of liability through to the High Court in relation to a professional indemnity claim brought against a firm of solicitors.

Andrew is a member of the Law Society of Western Australia and the Australian Insurance Law Association.

He was recently recognized by his peers as a recommended defendant CTP and motor vehicle insurance lawyer in the 2019 Doyle's Guide.