Yin is a partner of Tottle Partners, specialising in administrative law, commercial litigation, disputes resolution, bankruptcy and corporate insolvency.

She graduated from the University of Western Australia with degrees in Bachelor of Jurisprudence and Bachelor of Laws and was admitted to practice in 1992. Yin became a partner of Tottle Partners in 2010, having been with the firm since 2000.

Yin's practice focuses on complex litigation and advises corporate and individual clients on a wide range of general commercial disputes involving:

- shareholder, partnership, trustee and director disputes
- directors' and trustees' duties
- property and leasing
- wills and estates
- guarantees, lending and banking
- professional negligence
- statutory demands and winding up applications
- bankruptcy

Since 2005, Yin has acted for the Veterinary Surgeons' Board of Western Australia in providing general advice and in conducting disciplinary proceedings in the State Administrative Tribunal against registered veterinary surgeons.

Yin also regularly advises interstate and overseas law firms on the practice and procedures relating to the conduct of Court proceedings in Western Australia.

Yin speaks Mandarin and various Chinese dialects.

Yin is a member of the Law Society and has been repeatedly recognised in Doyle's Guide as a leading and recommended litigation and dispute resolution lawyer in Western Australia and in Australia.
